

LOUISIANA LIBRARIES:
CONNECTING PEOPLE TO THEIR POTENTIAL

888.487.2700

If you need to learn or even improve your computer skills and are older than 16, this message is for you!

Get your FREE training now on today's most respected and professionally used software! This FREE training is offered by the State Library of Louisiana in partnership with Louisiana's public libraries.

Hands-on Training

Microsoft Office

Word, Excel, Outlook, Power Point, Access, Publisher, MS Project

Adobe Creative Suite

Acrobat, InDesign, Photoshop, Dreamweaver

Quickbooks

Business Accounting Software

Register in advance. All you have to do is go to lajacc.state.lib.la.us/training or call 888.487.2700. Complete schedule and information is online at this web site, which is a terrific one-stop shop portal for job hunters.

Training is presented by MS Gold Certified Partner trainers and funded through a BroadbandUSA grant as part of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act.

More training is coming soon to a public library near you!! Learn job search skills, career best practices, communication skills and basic computer skills.

<http://lajacc.state.lib.la.us/training>

STATE LIBRARY OF LOUISIANA

701 NORTH 4TH STREET • BATON ROUGE, LA 70802-5232 • P.O. Box 131 (70821-0131)

TELEPHONE: (225) 342-4923 • FAX (225) 219-4804 • WWW.STATE.LIB.LA.US

Office of the Lieutenant Governor • Louisiana Department of Culture, Recreation and Tourism • An Equal Opportunity Employer