

THE BEATLES

Beatles Scholar at the Library with Aaron Krerowicz Tuesday, Jan. 31, 2017 at 7 pm

The United States of America has only one full-time professional Beatles music scholar, and he will present his findings at the Vernon Parish Library, January 31, 2017 at 7 p.m.

Krerowicz graduated from Butler University with a Bachelor's of Music in 2008, then earned a Master's of Music from Boston University in 2010, and a Graduate Artist Diploma from the University of Hartford in 2012. While still a student in Connecticut, he won a research grant through the University to study the Beatles. Since then, he has made a full-time career of presenting his research and analysis of the band's music and their place in history, and has presented his findings more than 200 times throughout the US and England.

His first Beatles book, The Beatles & The Avant-Garde, was published in 2014. His second, The Beatles: Band of the Sixties, was released in April 2015 as an Amazon Kindle ebook. And his third, From the Shadow of JFK: The Rise of Beatlemania in America, was published in June 2015. All three books are available for purchase on Amazon.com.

More recently, Aaron launched a series of videos on YouTube titled THE BEATLES MINUTE in January 2016, which showcase his Beatles analyses.
